Agenda Item IV: AREAS OF CO-OPERATION - THE FUTURE OF CCTA

The Summit Conference of Independent African States meeting in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, from 22 to 25 May 1963,

Considering that at the last C.C.T.A. session in Dar-es-Salaam in January to February 1963, the final adoption of the new CCTA convention was deferred until the Heads of African States had had an opportunity to consider the role and direction of the CCTA within the overall context of Pan-African Co-operation,

And in view of the fact that Article 23 of this new convention lays down as follows:

"Pending the signature and the ratification of this convention as provided in article 16, the Parties having initialed this convention agree to apply it provisionally as if it had entered into force as from the date of initialing, subject to any decision which may be taken by the Heads of African and Malagasy States at the Conference at Addis Ababa or at any subsequent conference on the role of the CCTA within the overall context of Pan-African Co-operation",

DECIDES to maintain C.C.T.A. and to reconsider its role in order to bring it eventually within the scope of the Organization of African States, which will have, as one of its arms, an organ for technical, scientific and cultural co-operation.
